If you want FURNITURE-

Buy FURNITURE that is not make-believe.

Be sure that it is of sound construction and not showy front work with nothing to back it.

Remember that cheap ornate appearance is not a guarantee of durability.

In short, deal with a House of Repute, and make sure of securing only the best.

Very often a sound job, produced on good, solid lines, minus unnecessary ornaments, is less price and lasts longer.

My dear People,

July 17th of this year was a red letter day in the life of our Patron, Mr. Lancaster, as it marked the ninetieth anniversary of his birthday. Mr. Lancaster seems so well, so active and energetic, that the full days of the Psalmist, plus 20 years, fall lightly upon his shoulders. It is the wish of everyone that Mr. Lancaster may be spared to enjoy full health and happiness for many years to come. The messages of congratulation which he received were numerous, and must have been a source of pleasure. We were pleased that we were able to fly a flag on our Church Tower on this auspicious occasion.

It afforded us all the greatest pleasure to welcome Mrs. Shaw, Mr. Lancaster's sister, at Church on the following Sunday. Mrs. Shaw's interest in the Church has not waned in the least since the day, nearly thirty years ago, when she laid the foundation stone. She expressed to me after the service what a joy and pleasure it was to her to be able to come occasionally and worship in the Church of S. Edward's. She always found it such a help and inspiration. The Sung Eucharist was beautifully rendered that morning to Gounod's "Messe Solemnelle" setting, and the Anthem "The Peace of God," which was sung during the ablutions, was a splendid climax to a very impressive service.

The Vicar, preaching on the works "Remember the days of old, consider the years," Deut. xxxii. 7, concluded his address with the words: "We have been thinking, we are thinking, of one who can look back ninety years, with perhaps like all of us, a tinge of regret, most certainly with thankfulness, and can assuredly look forward with confidence for the future. This has been an auspicious week for us, and we, at this great Eucharistic service, raise our hearts in thankfulness to the Giver of Life. As I stand in this pulpit, looking down upon brother and sister, the only members in this life of a large family, my thoughts pass on to dear ones gone before, who to-day mingle their praises with ours, and share our happiness. We thank God Who has been good to them in the days that are past, and despite their advanced age, we pray that He will yet spare them to us for some time to come, and that He will make their evening of life one of peace, joy, and unclouded sunshine."

The "Musical Service" in the afternoon, in honour of Mr. Lancaster's birthday, was a happy thought on the part of the Vicar. When he approached the choirmaster and choristers they were unanimous that a special effort should be made on this unique occasion. The choir gave of its best, and when we say that, it means something. S. Edward's choir has had a wonderful reputation, and it proved on this occasion that the high standard set in the past was easily maintained if not excelled. The selections rendered covered a very wide field, and proved what a great deal of labour and time must be devoted to practising. The choirmaster, soloists, and members of the choir deserve our warmest thanks. After the service Mr. Lancaster and his sister thanked them for the "splendid and inspiring service, which as Mrs. Shaw said, "was truly heavenly." To show their appreciation both brother and sister gave a gift towards purchasing new music.

When listening to the heavenly music on July 20th I thought of two dear faces I missed, namely, Mr. Midgley, who, had he been well, would have joined in the praises with his old form heartiness and sincerity, and also our dear friend Mr. Spooner, who would have entered into the spirit of the whole service. You will be delighted to know that both these gentlemen are now on the right road to recovery. I shall gladly welcome them to their old places, as faithful worshippers are sadly missed by their Vicar.

We are now in the midst of the holiday season, and I sincerely wish those of you who are able to get away for a holiday this year an enjoyful

time

Your sincere friend and Vicar,

JOHN WINSTON.

NOTES BY THE WAY.

Sunday Schools.—During August the Children's Eucharist Services will be suspended, and the Sunday Schools will be closed, in order to give the teachers a much needed rest and holiday. The Sunday Schools will re-open on the first Sunday in September.

The Magazine will not be published in September but a double number will appear in October.

Holidays.—Canon Hone has very kindly undertaken to be responsible for the services during the Vicar's absence on holiday—Sundays, the 14th, 21st, and 28th of September.

A Fairy Story.—There was once a Clergyman, and all that he said or did was appreciated by all the people in his parish.

Choir Outing. — The choice of Llangollen as the venue for this year's outing was in every respect an excellent one. There had been forebodings that the long spell of fine weather was drawing to an end, but the second Thursday in July, as is usually the case, dawned as brightly as could be desired. The journey was made in comfort, and of course, in a jolly and merry mood. True, there was some discussion about a "cover"! The road and its scenery was new to most of the party, which made it more enjoyable. The delightful and charming Vale of Llangollen was arrayed in all its splendour, and its exquisite beauty appealed to all. The outing was thoroughly enjoyed by everybody—the comfortable conveyance, the glorious sunshine, the beautiful scenery, and last but not least, the good food and a well-known tune called "Rimington": these all contributed to make it such a success. We reached home at 11 p.m., the general opinion expressed being "that this was the best Outing yet."

Garden Party. - The "clerk of the weather" specially favoured us on July 17th. It was a glorious day, sandwiched between a week of wet weather, again teaching us that when "we ask we shall receive." The Union Jack waving from the Church tower, the Vicarage drive gaily decorated with bunting, and the large number of wellwishers on the lawn, made passers-by ask "Is it Mr. Lancaster's birthday to-day?" Mr. Lancaster, and his only sister, Mrs. Shaw, received a very hearty welcome when they arrived, and he was warmly congratulated by parishioners and friends. Mr. Lancaster, full of vitality, cut into the three-tier birthday cake which he had so kindly given. On the iced decoration were the words: "In honour of Mr. Lancaster's 90th birthday, 1840-1930. The side shows organised by Mr. Orrell and Miss Burton did a very brisk trade, and the gent.'s hat trimming competition caused much amusement. We thank all who contributed to the success of the party. The receipts were £18 7s. 5d.

Girl Guides. - The Barnsley West District held their annual Display and Rally in Cawthorne Park, on Saturday, June 28th, in perfect weather. The County Commissioner, Mrs. Pickering, C.B.E., inspected each Company, afterwards taking the salute during the march past, which was very impressive. Brownies then gave their item of games and dances. These were very much enjoyed by those taking part as well as by the onlookers. At the conclusion of these each Guide Company produced a lamp gadget, performed a short Play on Guiding, made a camp fire and had Company drill. Points were awarded for each item, the winners being Dodworth Com-After tea the various Companies and Rangers produced in pageant form a series of scenes depicting parts played by British women in history. S. Edward's Rangers acted "The Burghers of Calais," showing how Queen Eleanor influenced her husband for good when he would have dealt cruelly with a vanquished foe.

On July 5th the Barnsley Division gave stunts and displays in Stainbro' Park in aid of the Royal National Lifeboat Institution and the N.S.P.C.C. S. Edward's Brownies and Rangers repeated their performance.

Camp.—From August 28rd several of S. Edward's Guides and Guider will spend a week in camp at Sandbeck Park, Rotherham. They are hoping for a very dry period of weather, and are looking forward to this new experience very much.—H. Charlton.

Wedding Bells.—On Thursday, June 26th, a very interesting wedding took place, the contracting parties being Mr. Robert Bawcutt and Miss Marjorie Antrobus Robertson. Mr. Bawcutt is a member of our Parochial Council, a Sidesman, a Server, and Captain of our C.L.B.

On Saturday, July 19th, another of our young men, Mr. Henry Hampson, was joined in holy matrimony to Miss Hilda Farnsworth. Mr. Hampson is also a Server, and a Serjeant in our C.L.B. The members of the Finance Committee and of the C.L.B. presented each of them with a handsome timepiece.

We extend to the happy couples our warmest wishes for their future happiness.

Doctrine of the Eucharist. — In the belief that service might be rendered to the cause of unity in the Church of England by a statement setting forth the agreement that exists between various schools of thought with regard to Eucharistic doctrine, a number of Bishops and Clergy, representing different schools of thought, recently attended a conference at King's College, London, and agreed to issue the following statement, signed, among others, by the Archbishop of York:

"We are all agreed that Christ is truly present in the Holy Communion. All find this Presence in the sacred action generally, and in the souls of the faithful receivers. Some also find it specially in such association with the consecrated elements that it is fitly spoken of as vouchsafed in or through them; and others do not find it in any special association with the element apart from reception. There are also various interpretations intermediate between these two. But all are agreed that both these interpretations can legitmately be held within the Church of England. Further, all are agreed that the Presence of Christ in the Eucharist is 'after an heavenly and spiritual manner'; that He is spiritually to be received, and that 'the means whereby the Body of Christ is received and eaten in the Supper is Faith'; and all are agreed that our Blessed Lord is always and everywhere present to His faithful people, and not through the Sacrament of the Eucharist only. It is important that all should avoid mistaken views of what is held by those with whom they disagree: thus, for example, it should not be thought that any instructed Christian believes in a material Presence of Christ in the Eucharist, whether or not he professes belief in the 'Real Presence'; or again, those who do not conceive of the Presence of Christ as specially associated with the Elements apart from reception are not to be supposed to regard the Holy Communion as a memorial only; all schools of thought are agreed in holding that Christ is spiritually present in the Eucharist. We appeal to our fellow-churchmen to recognise the wide measure of agreement here expressed, and also to recognise that it quite definitely includes agreement to differ in the interpretation of the Presence of Christ in the Eucharist, as set forth above, until by the guidance of the Holy Spirit we are united in a fuller apprehension of the truth."

Other signatories include the Bishop of Winchester. the Bishop of S. Albans, the Bishop of Chelmsford, Bishop Gore, Bishop Frodsham, Rev. James Adderley, and the Rev. S. C. Carpenter, Master of the Temple.

Mothers' Union.—On July 21st this Branch received a visit from the Diocesan Secretary. As usual Miss Norton's address was full of sound advice, and we are deeply grateful to her for her visit. Mrs. Beanland, the Presiding Member for the Barnsley Deanery, visits us on August 11th, at 6.30 p.m. All are heartily invited.

Sewing Party .- The Sewing Party is busy at work in preparation for our forthcoming "Sale of For the present the meetings are held on alternate Tuesday afternoons, in the Choir Vestry. Numerous orders for garments are pouring in. What is wanted now are more orders, a larger number of lady workers in order to assist in the work, and more to partake of the teas. A very hearty welcome is given to all. The Sewing Meetings are very enjoyable functions where anyone may spend a very profitable afternoon and derive much pleasure from them. We also want more people to purchase Thrift Tickets. They may be had from any of the following ladies:-Mesdames Dennis, Giles, Mellor, Moss, Parker, W. H. Parkin, Smith, L. Townend, and Miss M. Giles. Miss Gladys Hirst, Park Grove, is the Treasurer, and issues the tickets.

Mothers' Trip. - What a day!! If everybody wasn't just about tired ont when they got home last night, then they ought to have been. A start was made at 7.30 a m., and the first halt was made at Market Rasen. Whilst inspecting the delightful Church, which dates back to 1660, the Vicar came across the following notice:—

"Let us proportion our Alms to our ability, lest we provoke God to proportion His Blessings to our Alms"

This is a precept we would do well to bear in mind, to commit to memory, and put into practice.

We also visited Louth Parish Church: we simply could not resist the opportunity, and we were amply rewarded.

Skegness was reached at 12.15, and the first item was lunch. Unfortunately there will be no permanent record of any of the doings of the afternoon; but that may be all for the best! The weather on the whole was good. The journey home via Lincoln can only be described as a very good exhibition of "gallant and high-hearted happiness," and if anyone had been suffering from depression they could have had no better tonic than an hour in the company of the S. Edward's mothers.

Altar Flowers.—On Sundays, July 20th and 27th, the flowers were given by Mrs. Winston and Mrs. Samuel.
